

WE ARE THE TREE OF LIFE®
FALL 2022 PROGRAMS

Sponsored by The Leichtag Foundation

October 6, 7:00 PM: EXPLORING THE HOLOCAUST THROUGH DANCE (In-Person)
Presented by the San Diego Center for Jewish Culture at the Lawrence Family JCC

In this performance, Tammuz Dubnov, a dancer, choreographer, and founder of ZUZOR, unravels and conveys the Holocaust experiences of a few individuals through the universal language of dance.

October 24, 10:30 AM: VISUALIZING THE PAST, A LESSON OF TODAY (Virtual)
"CARRY ON" EPISODES and "SHOES"
Presented by USC Shoah Foundation

Kori Street will lead a dialogue between film producers and scholars related to two short films, both of which will be shown during the presentation. The films are: "CARRY ON," to give voice to those silenced, Shoah artists, enabling them to be heard today. "SHOES," a short film on the Holocaust, or in fact, any Genocide, and any dramatic acts of Hate.

November 16, 7:00 PM: ON THE WINGS OF SONGS (In-Person)

Presented by the San Diego Center for Jewish Culture at the Lawrence Family JCC

The resilience of the human spirit as interpreted through a modern lens. Daniel Vnukowski, a radio host of The New Classical FM 96.3 and Artistic Director of the Collingwood Music Festival, will perform on piano a musical diary of testimonies from the philosophical letters of Moshe Flinker, which records the young teen's views on faith, to the poignant lyrics of Sholem Aleichem's lullaby. You'll be taken on a dreamy journey from sunset to sunrise with a beautiful musical backdrop.
